STATION 2: (MI 6)

Divin

A single staff of musical notation, likely a vocal line, featuring various notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as 'A' and 'f'. The notation is written on a five-line staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The piece begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The melody starts with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a half note B-flat4. There are several measures with rests, some marked with 'A' or 'f'. The notation includes various note values, including half notes, quarter notes, and eighth notes, as well as slurs and ties. The piece ends with a double bar line.

A long, narrow musical score for a single melodic line. It consists of approximately 25 staves, each with a single five-line staff. The notation is a single melodic line with various note values, including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The music is written in a single system, with the staves connected by a vertical line on the right. The notes are mostly eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes and rests. The overall style is that of a traditional musical manuscript.
