The first staff of music is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a sequence of eighth notes. The first four groups of three eighth notes are slurred together and have an accent (^) above them. The fifth group of three eighth notes is also slurred and accented, but it is preceded by a '3' below the staff, indicating a triplet. This pattern of slurred and accented eighth notes continues throughout the staff, with some groups being triplets and others not.
