EL CHONCHONGORRY

This is a handwritten musical score for the 1st Trumpet part of a piece titled "EL CHONCHONGORRY". The score is written on 12 staves, each beginning with a treble clef and a 2/4 time signature. The notation includes various musical symbols such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and rests, often grouped with beams. There are several dynamic markings and performance instructions written above the staves, including "1ere" (first), "Trompette", "15", "2", "31", and "S:". Additionally, there are circled letters A, B, C, D, and E, which likely indicate specific sections or key changes within the music. The handwriting is in ink on a white background, and the overall style is that of a personal or working manuscript.

Handwritten musical notation on five staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation is dense and complex, featuring many beamed notes and rests. The word "FIN" is written at the end of the first staff.
